Rogaining Tasmania Position Description

ARA REPRESENTATIVES (2)

QUALIFICATIONS

- State Presidents are automatically an ARA representative.
- Ideally, the second person would normally be able to travel to ARCs, but a proxy can attend ARA AGMs.

DUTIES

- To attend the ARA AGM – Normally held on the Friday before an ARC
- To be an "information conduit" between RTas and the ARA.
- Forwarding of requests of income and participation numbers to the relevant RTas officer.
- Forward relevant ARA business (emails) to the RTas committee.
- Typical ARA issues discussed include:
    - Financial matters such as the capitation, international development and insurance fees.
    - Voting and discussion on matters between the ARA and the International Rogaining Federation.
    - Discussion of technical issues including rule revisions.
    - Funding opportunities through the ARA.

DOCUMENTS

REFERENCE

- The ARA rules and regulations, including preamble and ARC requirements

TO BE PREPARED

- Some thought and discussion with the RTas committee regarding ARA AGM issues.
- Some thought on RTas issues to take to the ARA AGM.
- Verbal report for the subsequent RTas committee meeting.

MATERIALS

EQUIPMENT

- Access to email

LIAISON

- With the RTas committee
- With the other ARA reps from other states. Collectively known as the ARA Council. ara-council@googlegroups.com
- With Membership Officer (requests for yearly participant counts)